

Things to be included in resume (PDF File)

Following is the list of things that should be included in the resume that you are uploading (Mandatory)

1. Name:
2. Affiliation:
3. The PI should clearly indicate his/her competency to carry out the project.
4. The list of publications should include a maximum of 5-10 most recent papers pertaining to the relevance of the area of project. The bibliographical details of a paper should include author, title, journal name, year and other details. The status of the journals can also be provided in terms of its coverage by major global services like MEDLINE, Science Citation Index and Journal Impact Factor.
5. If the papers have received any citations, this can also be indicated (optional).
6. The PI should clearly declare conflict of interest.

Please note that the above list will go in the PDF document that you are uploading onto the system.